

TELEHEALTH CERTIFICATION NOW AVAILABLE

Telehealth is changing the approach to healthcare delivery. ACHC Telehealth Certification expands opportunities for organizations to demonstrate their excellence in delivering technology-enabled care and services.

Certification promotes best practices to empower your team and enhance patient outcomes. In an evolving market, certification also keeps you ready to meet future demands, like potential payor requirements.

ACHC Telehealth Certification confirms the quality of your services — assuring patients they are receiving the best care and giving you a significant competitive advantage. Accreditation is not required.
